PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

Vol. XIX.]

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1818.

[No. 5264.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstenate coughs, asthma, sore throats, cat-arrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, &c.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants of a weak old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines, the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

BEPPINO—A VENETIAN STORY.

This lively and satirical Poem has been widely circulated and is well calculated to amuse a vacant half hour. The title is briefly as follows:

Beppo, or Guiseppe, a Venetian trader, is shipwrecked on the coast of Turkey; becomes, of course, a slave, and undergoes the usual treatment of Christian slaves. At length, weary of this mode of life, he joins a pirate, accumulates wealth and returns to Venice, to spend the remainder of his days in peace, and die in the bosom of the church. Such is the story of Beppo himself. During his absence, an underplot was carried on by his wife, who, tired of living in lonely solitude, has recourse to the solace usual with desolate ladies. She associates herself with an Italian Count, a finished coxcomb; with whom she goes to every ball, feast, and amusement, in her power. Of this important personage, we have the following graphic description:

And then he was a Count, and then he knew Musick and dancing, fiddling, French, And Tuscan;
The last not easy, he it known to you, For few Italians speak the right Etuscany;
He was a critic upon Operas too, And knew all niceties of the sock and buskin,
And no Venetian audience could endure, a Song, scene, or air, when he cried "Sac-catura."

His "bavo" was decisive; for that sound Hush'd "Academie" sighed in silent awe
The fiddlers trembled as he looked around,
For fear of some false note's detected flaw;
The "prima Donna's" tuneful heart would bound, Dreading the deep damnation of his
"bah!"

Soprano, Rasso, and even the contras-alto, Wish'd him five fathom under the Rialto.
No wonder such accomplishments should turn
A female head, however sage and steady, With scarce a hope that Beppo could return,
In law he was almost as good as dead, he Nor sent, nor wrote, nor showed the least concern,
And she had waited several years already,
And really, if a man won't let us know, That he's alive, he's dead or should be so.

Among other places of amusement, which they frequented, the Carnival is too lively a scene to be passed in silence by the poet; he has, accordingly, portrayed it with much liveliness and fancy.

The moment night, with dusky mantle, covers The skies (and the more darkly the better)
The time, less liked by hundreds than by lovers, Begins, and prudery flings aside her letter:
And gaily on restless tiptoe hovers, Giggling with all the gallants who beset her;

And there are songs, and quavers, roaring, humming, Guitars, and every sort of strumming.
And there are dresses, splendid, but fantastical, Masks of all times and nations, Turks, and Jews,
And Harlequins and Clowns, with feats gymnastic.
Greeks, Romans, Yankee Doodles and Hindoos.

All kinds of dress, except the ecclesiast-ic,
All people, as their fancies hit, may choose;
But no one in these parts may quiz the clergy!

Therefore take heed, ye Freethinkers, I charge ye.
You'd better walk about begirt with briars, In stead of coat and small clothes, than put on A single stitch reflecting upon Friars.

Although you swore it only was in fun, They'd haul you over the coals and stir the fire
Of Phlogiston with every mother's son; Nor say one mass to cool the cauldron's bubble
That boil'd your bones, unless you paid them double.

The return of Beppo, does not make any material alteration, in their arrangements, and the tale terminates auspiciously.

We were much amused with the following sprightly contrast between Italy and England—

For all those sinful doings, I must say, That Italy is a pleasant place to me,
Who love to see the sun shine every day, And vines (not nailed to walls) from tree to tree.

Festoon'd much like the back scenes of a play, Or melo-drama which people flock to see.

When the first act is ended by a dance, In vineyards copied from the South of France.

I like, on autumn evenings to ride out, Without being forced to bid my groom, be sure
My cloak is round his middle strapp'd about.

Because the skies are not the most secure;
I know too, that if stopped upon my rout, Where the green allies, windingly al-lure,

Reeling with grapes, red wagons chock the way, In England I would be dung, dust, or a dray.

I also like to dine on becofoens, To see the sun set, sure he'll rise tomorrow,
Not through a misty morning, twinkling weak as

A drunken man's dead eye, in mauling sorrow,
But with all heaven's himself, that day will break as Beauteous, as cloudless, nor be forced to borrow

That sort of farthing candle light, which glimmers,

Where reeking London's smoky cauldron simmers.
I love the language, that soft, bastard Latin

Which melts, like kisses from a female mouth,
And sounds, as if it should be writ on Satin,

With syllables that breath of the sweet South,
And gentle liquids, gilding all so pat in That not a single accent seems uncouth,

Like our harsh, northern, whistling, grunting, guttural,
Which we're obliged to hiss, and spit, and sputter all.

The following passage might have been as well written, at Bath, or Clifton, as at Venice—

"Now Laura moves along the joyous crowd, Smiles in her eyes and simpers on her lips;

To some she whispers, others speaks aloud;
To some she courtsies, and to some she dips

Complains of warmth, and this complaint avow'd,
Her lover brings the lemonade, she sips;

She then surveys, condemns, but pities still Her dearest friends for being dressed so ill.

"One has false curls, another too much paint,
A third—where did she buy that frightful turban,?

A fourth's so pale, she fears she's going to faint,
A fifth, looks vulgar, dowdyish; and suburban,

A sixth's white silk has got a yellow taint,
A seventh's thin muslin surely will be her bane.

And lo! an eighth appears—"I'll see no more,
For fear like Banquo's Kings, they reach a score."

The morning now was on the point of breaking,
A turn of time at which I would advise Ladies, who had been dancing or partaking

In any other kind of exercise,
To make their preparation for forsaking
The ball room are the sun begins to rise, Because when once the lamps and candles fail,

His blushes make them look a little pale I've seen some balls and revels in my time,
And staid them over for some silly reason,
And then I look'd, (I hope it was no crime)

To see what lady best stood out the season;
And, though I've seen some thousands in their prime,
Lovely and pleasing, and who still may please on,

I never saw but one, the stars withdrawn,
Whose bloom, could, after dancing, dare the dawn.

ly to be the production of his sombre muse. We have heard this jeu d'esprit ascribed to various authors; but we believe we are not incorrect in referring it to Mr. Freer, whom report states to be the author of the lively and satirical "Specimen of a National Poem," lately published under the name of Messrs.
Whistlecraft.

[We have not yet had the pleasure to read Beppo, nor would we venture an opinion as to the author, upon the extracts we have published. There are however, some circumstances which incline us to the belief that Lord Byron is the author.

The scene, among Turks, and Pirates, and at Venice—several English reviews ascribe the authorship to him—the publisher of Lord Byron, (Mr. Murray) is the publisher of Beppo, and he unhesitatingly announces Lord Byron as the author. As the work is now published in this city, the public may determine for itself. If Beppo be indeed not Lord Byron's yet can boast his vigour of conception and language, it will be a proud day for England that she can boast of two such Poets.

The foundations of both the additional buildings for Public Offices, authorized by an act of the last session of Congress, have been commenced, and will be rapidly prosecuted. These buildings are to be of the same size as the two present edifices, and to stand parallel to them; distant forty or fifty yards; the new buildings being north of the others.—These buildings will add greatly to the accommodation of the public offices, and of those who have business with them.

The foundation of the centre building of the Capitol is begun, also in conformity to the law of last session; and great activity is seen in the workshops where the columns of Potomac Marble are finishing for the interior of the Representative chamber. We hope to see the Capitol completed within and without, embellishments, of all kinds included, in a time shorter than, until the late session of Congress, we had ever dared to calculate on.

[National Intelligencer.]

We have been favored with circulars from Oporto of April 15th and May 8th.
Under former date, it is remarked, "Indian Corn will all ways command a good price, being the principal food of the poor, and none of the country corn is in the hands of the farmers, being nearly consumed." The American vessels at Oporto sold their corn at from 450 to 860 reis (metal) per alq. The former price was for a cargo very much heated, and the latter for a cargo of excellent corn from N.
Carolina.

[Boston Paper.]

Arrived yesterday the United States Sch'r's Hornet and Despatch, lieutenants Ramage and Smoot, from the lower waters of the Chesapeake. They are the bearers of the United States Commissioners of Survey, who have come up for the purpose of executing their duties, so far as they are connected with the examination of our harbour and the Severn river. The attending commission we learn consists of captains Elliott and Warrington of the navy, and Generals Bernard (with his assistant, Lieut. Pousant) Swift, maj. Kearney, cols Armistead and M'Rea, of the engineer corps.—They proceed, we believe, on the immediate execution of their duties.

The London Courier, of 30th March, says—"We copy the following from the Plymouth paper which arrived this morning, with infinite regret. Among the great and bad changes which the French revolution has produced, perhaps one of the most afflicting is, that it has shaken the attachment to country, to the homes of our fathers, the graves of our ancestors, the altars of our God!"

"We perceive with regret that the tide of British emigrations to America (THE LAST OF ALL COUNTRIES WHERE WE SHOULD LIKE TO SEE ENGLISHMEN SET-TLE) is beginning to flow in this port and many parts of the country around, to an extent which threatens the deprivation of some of our best artificers and workmen, and includes even persons who, by their situation in life, might appear to have no cause whatever for quitting their country."

Charleston, June 19.
DUEL.

We understand that a duel took place at Castle Pinckney, in this harbour, on Wednesday evening last, between Lieut.
Caldwell, first of the U. S. sh'r. Lynx, and Lieut. Taylor, second of the brig Prometheus, in which the former received a flesh wound in the body. It is to be lamented that gentlemen who have, on all occasions, displayed the utmost bravery when engaged with the enemies of their country, should conceive it necessary, so frequently, in vindication of their character, to resort to this murderous expedient—this being the third or fourth instance, within the last six months, on the southern station. Nothing, probably short of cashiering both the principals engaged in a duel, will put an end to the barbarous custom.

LATEST FROM FRANCE

The brig Hesper, sailed from Havre, on the 16th of May, but brings nothing of particular interest, except that the markets for flour and rice continue to decline. The following is an extract of a letter, dated 12th of May:

"Since my last there is no very material change in our prices, except in the article of Rice, which owing to the late heavy arrivals, and the reduced rates of wheat and flour, caused by the favorable appearances of the ensuing crops, has declined to 38 fr. with the likelihood of being much lower. In general very little business has been done for the last 6 weeks, particularly in cotton, the actual supply of which amounts to 35,000 bales of all sorts.—Pot ashes continue without demand—stock about 4000 barrels. We have only 900 hhd. American tobacco, and that of inferior quality.

"Our supply of Havana sugar does not exceed 16000 boxes, and of Brazil and Muscavadoes we have little or none.— Coffee are extremely scarce, and very little at any of the continental ports.—St.

have only 2000.

By Last Evening's Mail

From the Balt. American, June 25.
FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The ship Woodrop Sims arrived at t port yesterday, in the short passage of days from Buenos Ayres.—Apt. Jenk informs that the U. S. frigate Congr was to sail from that port about the fi of May—the British brig Deveron, W son, from Baltimore, had arrived. Bu ness was dull, and many vessels of nations lying there.—Several vessels fr England were sitting out as cruisers.
The brig Ariel from Baltimore, had a rived at Valparaiso; she was very nearl ing taken by the Spanish frigate Vaganz had she not been assisted by the boats the U. S. sloop of war Ontario.—Bu nos Ayres was all rejoicing in consequence of the splendid victory gaine over the Royalists in Chilli, which ne reached Buenos Ayres a few days before the W. S. sailed—upwards of 1000 cas-sons were fired on the occasion, and th city brilliantly illuminated for three nights. Capt. Jenkins has brought ne pers detailing the particulars. The Peruvian army of 7000 men was totally destroyed, all killed or wounded, and th resources left to raise another. The los of the Patriots was considerable, 1000 killed.—Lima is doubtless in possession of the Chilian army.

Philadelphia, June 24.
LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the arrival at this port of the fine fast sailing ship Dido, Cap. Maxwell, in the short passage of 28 days from Liverpool, the editors of the Freeman's Journal have received London dates to the 19th of May, and Liverpool commercial letters of the 21st. The papers are generally destitute of interest.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Humbertson, Graham, & Co. to a respectable house in this city, dated Liverpool, May 21.

"Cottons are dull, with the exception of Orleans and Brazil, which are very steady; the former of these being generally of middling quality, are with difficulty disposed of at prices certainly much below their relative proportion with uplands, which are in fair demand at 90 1-2 for good cottons, & 2 1/2 for prime. The stock is now fast accumulating, especially last India cotton, which is heavily pressed forward on the market. Grain and flour continue to decline, and for the first Philadelphia flour, above 45s, cannot be called the wholesale price.— The imports of wheat into London since the opening of the ports is 197,000 quarters; and into Liverpool 34,000 quarters, the whole of excellent quality. The prospects of the harvest on the continent are very promising. There really appears to be no demand for American flour, for inferior, at all likely to relieve us from our present heavy stock, 225,000 barrels, upon the quality of which, the very fine weather we now experience, will soon have an unfavorable influence. Rice goes off for export at 34 a 36.

London, May 15.

There have been very extensive sales of stocks yesterday and this forenoon, and as the sellers have succeeded in creating a certain degree of alarm, the most ridiculous reports are circulated respecting the late American news. The act prohibiting the intercourse between the U. States, and the British West Indies, cannot in any respect, be regarded as hostile. It is merely for the purpose of giving American navigation a part of the profit of carrying lumber, &c. to Halifax, Bermuda, &c. where British vessels will meet the cargoes for their ultimate conveyance to the Islands; or more probably, it will throw this very lucrative trade into the hands of the settlers in British America.

When the official communications at Ghent were published in America, if we recollect rightly, the British government would not allow American vessels to trade with our West India Colonies.— The American minister made repea'd applications, but the point would, on no account be given up.

It was stated, however, in the official reply that any measures resorted to by America in consequence of this refusal, would not be looked upon by G. Britain as a hostile point of view. Under these circumstances, therefore, the present enactments may be regarded merely as tending to favor, in some measure, the navigation of the U. States, which has been greatly depressed lately.

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phenomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstract calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavored to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.
THOMAS COOPER, n. d.

James Kennedy & Son, RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,
No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-dropping Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Terebra large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenuis or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and foetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS, is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.
